

Partition System Orga

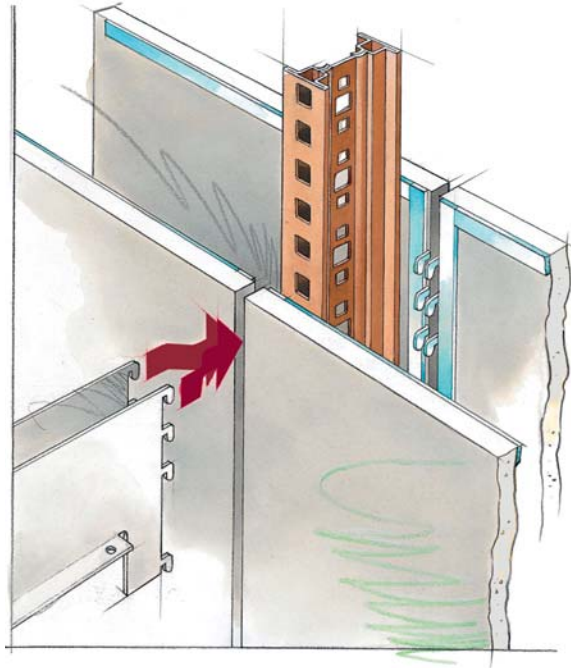

System Orga

The intelligent wall

Strähle develops its products with a holistic view of the requirements and needs of the users. The system joint of the partition walls is used for hanging furniture and accessories. These can be attached tool-free in just a few moments. Shelves and sideboards in a number of different open and closed versions, flipcharts, coat racks, door plates, magnetic rails and other extras enable individual design of the workplaces.

Strähle offers two organisational systems
 Vertical organisation; included as standard
 Horizontal organisation; optionally available

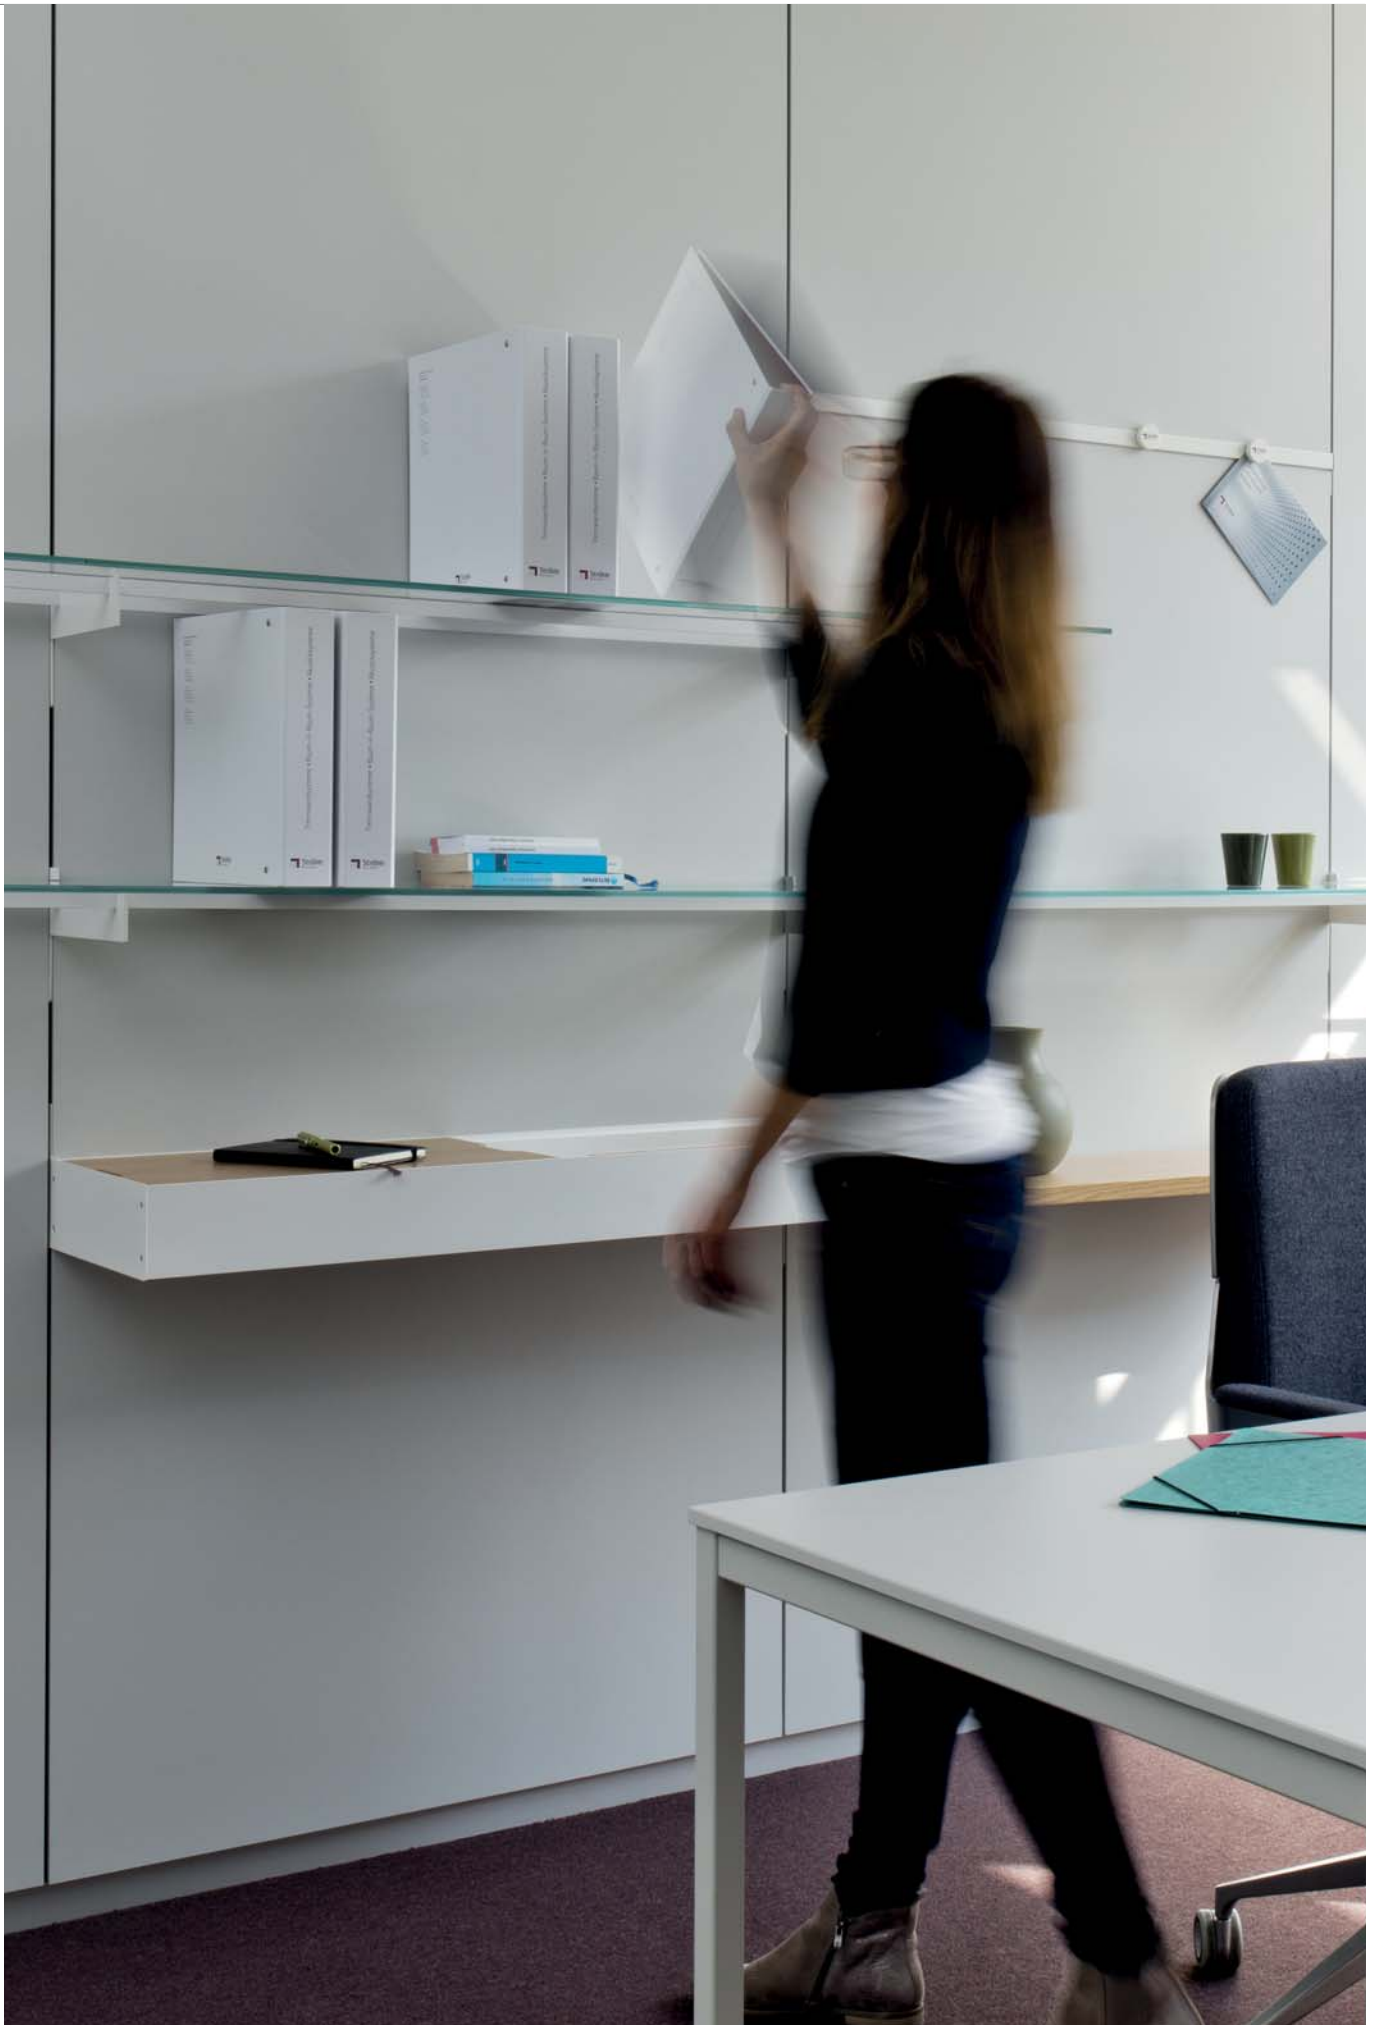

The principle

The advantages

- System-integrated wall organisation
- Individual workplace design
- Can be modified at any time without tools
- Space-optimised, efficient office organisation

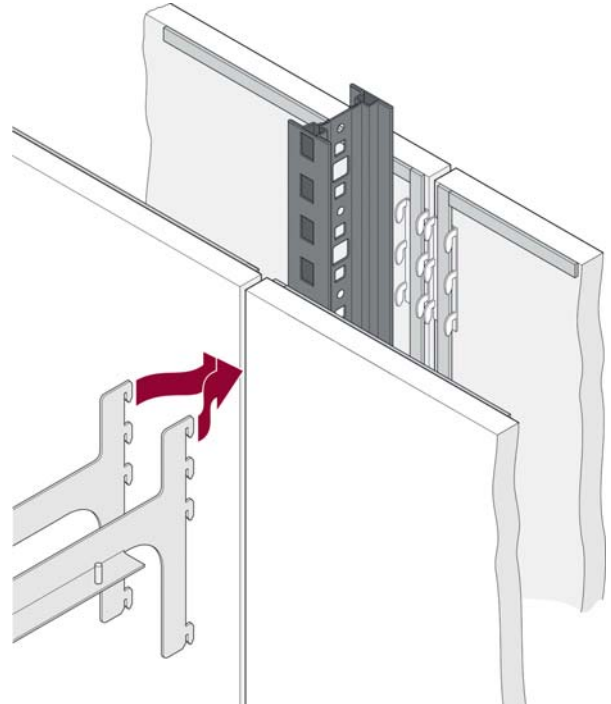

Vertical Organisation

Standard

Walls from Strähle fulfil a function. Even the basic version of the partition walls with patented mullion construction are pre-equipped with a vertical organisational system. The elements are fixed to the wall substructure using the vertical joints, thus creating optical and functional unity with the wall. Offices can thus be arranged individually and quickly. They can also be adapted easily if requirements change

- Organisational system integrated as standard
- Height-adjustable in steps of 32 mm
- Freely accessible but concealed fixing locations
- Can support heavy loads

Horizontal Organisation

The perfect addition

As an optional extra, the mullion construction of the partition walls can be supplemented by a flush-fit integrated aluminium rail. The elements are hooked in place by tilting them slightly and can then be moved sideways. Besides shelving systems, pinboards, magnetic boards and coat hooks, there are many other practical accessories available.

- Flush-fit integrated organisation rail
- Can be moved horizontally to any desired position
- Individual workplace design
- Elegant appearance thanks to horizontal structure
